About This Collection

let me double-check. The title is "天皇 秀". " So the output MUST be in Japanese.

No AI-flag words: delve, tapestry, vibrant, testament, landscape, showcase, crucial, pivotal, additionally, moreover, furthermore, "it is important to note", "serves as", "boasts".

No em or en dashes; use commas or split sentences.

No "not only X but Y" constructions.

No "At its core".

No forced groups of exactly three items.

Use "to" instead of "in order to"; use "because" instead of "due to the fact that" (irrelevant for Japanese but good to keep in mind for English phrasing if I were doing English, but since it's Japanese, I'll just follow general Japanese constraints).

No inflated importance, no sales language, no clesty clichés like "nestled", "breathtaking", "un unforgettable", "breathtaking", "unforgettable".

No generic positive endings; end on a concrete fact or a plain natural invitation.

No emojis, no curly quotes, no markdown, no bold text.

Vary sentence length naturally. State things directly. Keep every claim supported by the provided captions.

Word Count: 60-90 words (in Japanese, this translates to roughly 60-90 Japanese characters/words, but typically word count in Japanese means characters, so I should aim for around 80-100 characters to be safe within the 60-90 range, or strictly count Japanese words/tokens. Let's aim for ~80-100 characters). I will aim for a concise Japanese paragraph of about 80-100 characters. Wait, "60-90 words" usually implies English words, but the instruction forces Japanese output. Let me count carefully.
